

PSYCHOLOGY AS-LEVEL

Overview

On the A Level Psychology course, you will study for 4 hours per week.

You will complete the AS Level in the first year and the A2 in the second to form a full A-Level.

The course includes a wide range of topics in Psychology, and will be taught through theory sessions, practical activities, learning games and online activities.

The course can be taken in the following ways:

- As a stand-alone part-time course.
- As an 'add on' to a Full Time Level 3 Study Programme at the College, for example alongside a BTEC Extended Diploma.
- As part of a study programme with another two ALevels (full-time package).

Career Opportunities

This course will contribute to the requirements for an exciting range of opportunities for further study e.g. you could choose to take degree-level courses in Psychology, Sport & Exercise Science, Forensic Science, Mental Health Nursing and many others.

This could lead to a wide variety of careers, e.g. Teacher, Forensic Psychologist, Mental Health Nurse or Psychologist.

Entry requirements
