

FILM MAKING

Course Mode	Part-time
Location	Arts & Media Campus (AMC)
Duration	14 Weeks
Level	2

Course Overview

Over 14 weeks, students will develop the critical skills required in the documentary filmmaking process and explore the creative cycle to create a short film. Guided by workshops, video resources and demonstrations, students can expect to develop an understanding of basic composition, framing, cinematography and editing before learning to host and share their final film.

The film production course is ideal for those who wish to gain experience of visual media, create content for businesses or organisations, or those who would like to explore their creative ideas more effectively by better understanding the creative cycle.

The course will be taught through demonstrations, group discussions and hands-on practical tasks. This course will involve some personal study outside the class.

You will be taken through the visual communication process to help you explore media and develop a series of artwork.

The course will include time spent on tutor-led workshops, these will include:

- Ideas Generation and development

- Camera and exposure settings
- Camera handling and movement
- Sound recording and design
- Shooting for the edit and sequencing
- Editing techniques and exporting
- Sharing and releasing content

You will be assessed via a Wordpress blog of work produced throughout the course, this will include research, test shoots, edits and a written evaluation. On completing the course, you will achieve a UAL Level 2 Award in Creative Media Production & Technology.
