This qualification is aimed at anyone who wishes to work in licensed premises where alcohol is sold. On completion of this course, candidates will hold a licensing qualification with which they can apply for the Personal License. Anyone who authorises the sale of alcohol to the public (as per the legal requirement in England and Wales) is required to have a suitable qualification.

Applying for a Personal Licence?

Personal licences authorise individuals to sell or supply alcohol, or authorise the sale or supply of alcohol, for consumption on or off premises for which a premises licence is in force for the carrying on of that activity. Personal licences last for ten years and are renewable.

All licensed premises must have an allocated personal licence holder, known as the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS). The DPS must authorise every sale of alcohol.

In order to obtain a Personal Licence applicants must be 18 years of age or above and must submit the following to the local council (where the applicant lives) in order to apply for the licence to sell alcohol:

- An application form (obtained by the local council)
- Level 2 qualification certificate (obtained by completing this course)

- Disclosure and Barring Service check (replaces the CRB check)
- Two passport sized photos (signed by a professional)
- The application fee (check with your local council)

All successful BIIAB APLH candidates are invited to activate their complimentary provisional BII membership. This is the first step to becoming a member of the professional body for the licensed hospitality sector and includes some bespoke benefits. Visit www.bii.org for more information. The qualification comprises of:

- The roles, responsibilities and functions of licensing authorities within the framework of the licensing objectives.
